

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

United States of America

v.

Armando Pablo Ochoa

JUDGMENT IN A CRIMINAL CASE

(For Offenses Committed On or After November 1, 1987)

No. CR-18-01169-001-PHX-SMB

Gregory Anthony Bartolomei (FPD)

Attorney for Defendant

USM#: 99468-408

THE DEFENDANT ENTERED A PLEA OF guilty on 11/27/2018 to Count 2 of the Indictment.

ACCORDINGLY, THE COURT HAS ADJUDICATED THAT THE DEFENDANT IS GUILTY OF THE FOLLOWING OFFENSE: violating Title 18, U.S.C. §924(c)(1)(a)(iii), Use of a Firearm in Relation to a Crime of Violence, a Class A Felony offense, as charged in Count 2 of the Indictment.

IT IS THE JUDGMENT OF THIS COURT THAT the defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of ONE HUNDRED TWENTY (120) MONTHS. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of SIXTY (60) MONTHS.

The Court recommends that the defendant be placed in an institution in or near District of Arizona.

IT IS ORDERED that all remaining counts are dismissed on motion of the United States.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendant's interest in the following property shall be forfeited to the United States: one magazine containing 10 rounds of .556 ammunition; one magazine containing three rounds of .556 ammunition; one black Glock 17 firearm, serial number BGXP725; one magazine containing 16 rounds of 9mm ammunition; five .45 round of ammunition; three rounds of .223 ammunition; green ammunition can containing 160 rounds of 5.56 ammunition and 20 rounds of .223 ammunition; green ammunition can containing 290 rounds of .45 ammunition and empty .223 shell casing; one box of 70 rounds of federal brand .223 ammunition; 50 rounds of HPR .38 special ammunition; eight rounds of El Dorado Star Fire brand .38 special ammunition; one AR-15 pattern rifle, serial number NSO14777; one Mossberg International brand .22-caliber rifle, serial number EMJ3943269; one magazine with 17 rounds of ammunition; one empty magazine and one blue box containing 75 rounds of ammunition; one .45-caliber Ruger brand handgun, serial number 66385432; one Winchester Supreme Elite brand .40-caliber round of ammunition and 11 Blaser Brass brand 9mm rounds of ammunition; one full magazine containing unknown rounds of ammunition.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay to the Clerk the following total criminal monetary penalties:

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT: $100.00 FINE: WAIVED RESTITUTION: $110.24

The defendant shall pay a special assessment of $100.00 which shall be due immediately.

The Court finds the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine and orders the fine waived.

The defendant shall pay restitution to the following victim(s) in the following amount(s):
Norma Austin, in the amount of $110.24. Remaining restitution obligations to be determined.

If incarcerated, payment of criminal monetary penalties are due during imprisonment at a rate of not less than $25 per quarter and payment shall be made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Criminal monetary payments shall be made to the Clerk of U.S. District Court, Attention: Finance, Suite 130, 401 West Washington Street, SPC 1, Phoenix, Arizona 85003-2118. Payments should be credited to the various monetary penalties imposed by the Court in the priority established under 18 U.S.C. § 3612(c). The total special assessment of $100.00 shall be paid pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013 for Count 2 of the Indictment.

Any unpaid balance shall become a condition of supervision and shall be paid within 90 days prior to the expiration of supervision. Until all restitutions, fines, special assessments and costs are fully paid, the defendant shall immediately notify the Clerk, U.S. District Court, of any change in name and address. The Court hereby waives the imposition of interest and penalties on any unpaid balances.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

It is ordered that while on supervised release, the defendant must comply with the mandatory and standard conditions of supervision as adopted by this court, in General Order 17-18, which incorporates the requirements of USSG §§ 5B1.3 and 5D1.2. Of particular importance, the defendant must not commit another federal, state, or local crime during the term of supervision. Within 72 hours of sentencing or release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons the defendant must report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released. The defendant must comply with the following conditions:

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

- 1) You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
- 2) You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The use or possession of marijuana, even with a physician's certification, is not permitted.
- 3) You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The use or possession of marijuana, even with a physician's certification, is not permitted. Unless suspended by the Court, you must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

STANDARD CONDITIONS

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of sentencing or your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7) You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.

- 12) If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

The following special conditions are in addition to the conditions of supervised release or supersede any related standard condition:

- 1) You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, or office to a search conducted by a probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
- 2) You are prohibited from making major purchases, incurring new financial obligations, or entering into any financial contracts without the prior approval of the probation officer.
- 3) You must participate in a mental health assessment and follow any directions by the probation officer or treatment provider, which may include taking prescribed medication. You must contribute to the cost of treatment in an amount to be determined by the probation officer.
- 4) You must not contact the following victim(s), Norma Austin, Steven Bourne, Mazatzal Casino or Malcolm Nason, and the probation officer will verify compliance.
- 5) You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

THE COURT FINDS that you have been sentenced in accordance with the terms of the plea agreement and that you have waived your right to appeal and to collaterally attack this matter. The waiver has been knowingly and voluntarily made with a factual basis and with an understanding of the consequences of the waiver.

The Court may change the conditions of probation or supervised release or extend the term of supervision, if less than the authorized maximum, at any time during the period of probation or supervised release. The Court may issue a warrant and revoke the original or any subsequent sentence for a violation occurring during the period of probation or supervised release.

The Court orders commitment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons and recommends that the defendant be placed in an institution in or near District of Arizona.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

Date of Imposition of Sentence: Monday, March 04, 2019

Dated this 4th day of March, 2019.

Honorable Susan M. Brnovich
